

Leaving Home Checklist

To ensure peace of mind while you are away, why not run over this last-minute checklist of things to do before you go?

1. Have the post office hold your mail.
2. Stop your newspaper delivery, or have a friend or neighbor take them in for you.
3. Leave copies of your passport, airline tickets, travelers checks and any credit cards you plan to use with a family member or trusted friend.
4. Bring your travel and health insurance information and have it handy at all times.
5. Verify that you have your identification and travel tickets are with you and will be available at all times.
